Then he asked other animals for help. But they all feared the lion. So no animals came to help him.

At last the lion approached the clever fox. The king asked, "Can you pull out the thorn please. I am suffering very much with pain."

The fox said, "I am not very expert in this task. But I have a little friend who is very expert in this work. I will surely ask him to help you. But I have some demands."

"What are your demands?" asked the king.

"It is not just food or money, Your Majesty! You should allow me to give you five kicks on your back!" the fox said.

The lion king asked with surprise and anger "Do you want to kick me? Don't you know who I am?"

"I know! I know! But it is not my need to remove the thorn from your palm. If you don't want I am going. Good Bye" said the fox.

"Hey! Wait! Wait!" said the lion and he began to think for a moment "I am suffering with the pain of the thorn. It has to be pulled out. Let him kick me five times. I just want to remove the thorn.

The fox then began to kick the Lion King with his permission. One, two, three... like that. The fox called his little friend.
